

InstallerSHOW

code of conduct

InstallerSHOW is intent on creating a quality event within safe and respectful environments for all attendees to share knowledge, express their thoughts and opinions and network.

Our code of conduct requires all attendees to act in a manner that is harassment-free and respectful of people in a public environment, be it gender, age, sexual orientation, disability, race or religion.

The code of conduct also extends to:

Inappropriate approaches of a sexual nature and aggressive behaviour.

Offensive comments, questions or posts made on event engagement technology, social media channels and other online media platforms.

It is our expectation that attendees will act in a responsible manner in regard to alcohol consumption.

Any attendee that is deemed to be violating the code of conduct may be sanctioned or expelled from the event at our discretion.

If you have any concerns regarding conduct during the event, please don't hesitate to reach out to our staff stationed at the registration desk or via email at mcostain@lyricalcomms.com. Your cooperation is essential in ensuring that InstallerSHOW remains the premier event in the UK!
